The Yellow Wallpaper is a 6,000-word short story by the American writer Charlotte Perkins Gilman, first published in January 1892 in The New England Magazine. It is regarded as an important early work of American feminist literature, illustrating attitudes in the 19th century toward women's physical and mental health. The story details the unreliable narrator's descent into madness. Her antagonist husband, John, believes that it is in Jane's best interest to go on a rest cure after the ...

The Cure is a short and sweet, creative non-fiction piece for those who need an understanding of God's grace and how to move from a stuck-point in their faith. I recommend this to everyone who has been hurt by the Western Church system. Go back to the simplest most profound of all truths and start from there. You are loved.
