JOINT DOCTRINE - JESIP

The doctrine states that the Godhead, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, consists of three distinct Persons, yet these three are one God. There are many arguments espoused by those that deny the Trinity, but the most prevalent is: How can God be One God and at the same time be three Persons? The problem with that question is that it is based in ignorance of what God has said about Himself. The ...

The Doctrine of the Holy Communion BY MICHAEL GREEN THE Holy Communion Service of 1662 is primarily the work of one man, Thomas Cranmer. It is the work of a truly biblical theologian, in which the doctrinal insights brought about through the Reformation are given liturgical expression. It is a theological and literary masterpiece, perhaps the crowning glory of our liturgy, and it was achieved ...

In this presentation I argue that the plain meaning rule and the doctrine of fidelity to legislative intent are misleading in certain ways and force the courts to rely on a number of "tricks" which disguise the important role played by discretion in statutory interpretation. I identify and describe these tricks and give some examples of how they are done. I complain that the courts' reliance ...
