The Gambler led the match and I followed him. He was a meat-and-potatoes wrestler so it was nothing fancy, but it was exactly what I needed. It was the type of basic match that I would've had in wrestling camp. No bells or whistles, just a good story and solid execution. Lo and behold, we had a good little match and within five minutes I had regained my confidence and once again became Chris ...

THE GAMBLER by Kenny Rogers. Difficulty: White. Views: 706,845 NOTES; CHORDS; This country classic is a great one for beginners! Still just with our 3 chords (A, D and E) this one can be played with simple strumming or more complex depending on your ability to strum and do fast chord changes. It's pretty heavily simplified because the original has quite a few key changes that I have removed ...
