The Importance of Education It is no secret that a good education has the power to change a life. What is new is the demand for that change. Governments are investing more than ever before on educating their citizens, eager for them to compete in the global workforce. A growing global middle class is spending more of its own money on educating their families. Employers are looking for a new ...

THE IMPORTANCE OF WHAT WE CARE ABOUT 1. Philosophers have for some time devoted their most systematic attention primarily to two large sets of questions, each of which develops out of concern with a pervasively compelling and trouble- some aspect of our lives. In the first set, which constitutes the domain of epistemology, the questions derive in one way or another from our interest in ...
