1. Writing Copy That Sells: The Law of "Mass Desire" Drawing from Schwartz, let's start with a simple definition. Another word for "mass desire" is emotion: "the public spread of a private want." An ad's ability to sell begins and ends with identifying a "private want" and then channeling that want into "public" words. Only when an audience and an ad share the same dominant emotion does that ad stand any chance of compelling, converting, and closing.
